

What Information We Collect

When you visit and navigate the website, we will not collect any sensitive personal data. We will not collect any identifying information (like name, address, email address, or telephone number), about you unless you provide us that information voluntarily. However, individuals who register for any services or features on the website may be required to provide to us certain personal information.

How We Use Information

By providing personal information on the website, you consent to our contacting you via postal service, email or mobile application notifications. If you do not wish to receive such direct communications from us, you may unsubscribe by following instructions provided within our notifications or by contacting us.

Only the employees in our development have access to, and are associated with the processing of your information. They are obligated to respect the confidentiality of your personal data.

When you make donations, you will be providing your personal information and financial information to Stripe, our third-party, secure payment processor. We will only share the information necessary to complete the transaction.
